Prioritizing Well-Being

The UC Irvine School of Medicine and UC Irvine Health have made your well-being a top initiative. Our goal is to ensure easy access to resources that will promote wellness and resiliency.

The information covered in this guide may or may not currently affect you. However, by becoming more aware of the issues that do commonly affect physicians, you will be better equipped to recognize risk factors and symptoms, and respond in an effective way that could make a true difference for you and/or your colleagues. The specific areas covered in this brochure include:

- Self-Care Fundamentals
- UC Irvine Resources
  - Mental Health
  - Financial
  - Other Sources of Support
- Online Mental Health Screening, Tools and Resources
- Local, State and National Wellness Resources

It is important for all physicians to identify warning signs or any alarming changes in behavior in yourself, as well as others. Be proactive in getting care for yourself. And if you see someone else struggling, please reach out to him/her immediately.
