DESCRIPTION

Students will primarily observe performance and interpretation of general, vascular, and early obstetrical ultrasound examinations. Students will have the opportunity to participate in scanning of select cases. Students are taught primarily by the attending, fellow, and resident(s) on the service. There are no formal required reading assignments, but students will receive recommended readings and educational resources. The content of material taught will be guided by the mix of clinical cases as well as teaching file cases. By the completion of this elective, the student will have a grasp of the role and scope of ultrasonography in diagnosis across multiple disciplines. This elective will be of particular value for students considering careers in Diagnostic Radiology, Internal Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics and Gynecology, and Pediatrics.
